

Southeastern Pennsylvania School Age Child Care Project

Since 1986, the Southeastern Pennsylvania School Age Child Care Project's mission has been to encourage the development and expansion of high quality, innovative school-age child care programs that are affordable and accessible to the working families of this region.

The Southeastern Pennsylvania School Age Child Care Project is a program of Montgomery Early Learning Centers, a private, nonprofit, child care provider. Founded in 1963, Montgomery Early Learning Centers serves children 6 weeks to 12 years old in 24 centers located in Delaware, Montgomery and Philadelphia counties.
