

Southeastern Pennsylvania School Age Child Care Project

Presents the

School-Age Director's Leadership Series

Attention: Directors – Start the Year with an Innovative Bag of Tricks

August 3, 2010- Hiring the Right Staff

Leadership begins by investing in your staff right from the start. Revamp your standard interviewing and hiring approach. Create systems to support new staff during the orientation process. K8C3-91

August 10, 2010- "Loving Mondays"- Resiliency and Motivation

Discussion of methods for gathering data to identify your target market and creative strategies for marketing your program. K8C3-91

August 24, 2010- Fun in the Workplace -Applying the F.I.S.H. Philosophy to School-Age Care

The FISH! Philosophy provides set of simple, practical tools to help you create the work culture you've been looking for. It's a way to build stronger relationships that equip you to face your challenges more effectively. Develop more connected teams, better communication, extraordinary service and higher retention. K8C3-91

September 21, 2010- Professionalism and Ethics in School-Age Care

As program leaders you are called upon to sustain relationships with a wide variety of clients. Daily dealings often involve making decisions of a moral and ethical nature. Learn how to use the NAA School-Age Code of the Ethics as a foundation to support your decisions and the well-being of all clients. K8C3-91

September 28, 2010- Reflective Supervision – How Do My Leadership Skills Impact the Team?

Learn how to involve all members of the team in respectful coaching conversations that can improve their working relationships and collective work performance. Develop an organizational climate where all staff are learning together by providing time for reflection and problem solving through collaborative discussions among teachers. K8C3-93
